What is CTA Geneva?

The Commodity Trading Alumni was created in Geneva in 2012 and is composed of 25 committee members and more than 400 professional alumni. Its members were awarded the Diploma of Advanced Studies (DAS) or the Master in Commodity Trading from the University of Geneva (Switzerland). The CTA Committee organizes social events for its members, as well as public events on the topics of shipping and trading.

ITS GOALS ARE AS FOLLOWS

- 1 To promote the reputation of the academic programs in the trading and shipping industry worldwide.
- 2 To facilitate networking amongst members and the trading and shipping industry.
- 3 To represent its members in other organizations active in the trading and shipping industry.

Event Concept

- The tournament is played by opposing companies or teams working in the Trading/Shipping industry.
- Two players are representing either a company or their own team. One of the player has to come from our industry and the second can be either a colleague or a business partner.
- You can also register as a single player. In this case, the organizer will liaise with you to complete you team either with another single player or a member of the hosting golf club.
- Each player must have an active handicap issued by an official national Golf Association. The handicap of players which are between 36.1 and 54.0 will be rounded down to 36.0
- Game format
Greensome Stableford
Team competition - 2 players per team
